

Summer Art Experience Scholarship Rubric

Please use the rubric below to score the individual student applications on your spreadsheet.

CRITERIA	5	4	3	2	1
Student Essay	Student clearly articulates how this particular program can help advance artistic goals.	Student describes with some specificity how this program can help them reach their artistic goals	Student essay describes how this program can advance their artistic progress, but at a very basic level.	Student essay vaguely references artistic development but doesn't articulate how this program helps with those goals.	Student essay missing or of no value in determining how this program would advance their artistic progress.
Student Financial Need	Student unable to meet the financial requirements of this program and articulates why.	Student unable to meet financial requirements, but does not list a particular "hardship"	Student is able to meet some of the program's financial need.	Student can cover all of the program costs.	Student fails to articulate cost of summer program
Student Artistic Goals	Student provides strong examples of professional artistic goals and/or post-secondary plans	Student offers some examples of artistic goals and/or post-secondary plans	Student offers a modicum of details regarding her/his post-secondary or professional goals.	Student's goals/post-secondary plans are vague at best	Does not offer any specific artistic goals or post-secondary plan
Teacher Rec.	Teacher rec. offers clear picture of the student and how she/he would benefit from this program.	Teacher rec. explains with details the student's work ethic and the value of this program to his/her growth.	Teacher rec. demonstrates knowledge of the student and basic level of how this program would assist her/his growth.	Teacher rec. only vaguely describes student and his/her credentials	Teacher rec. is missing
Rigor of Summer Program	Summer program is renowned as high-caliber	Summer program is of high quality	Summer program is of "medium" quality	Summer program is not known as a "top-tier" program.	Student does not list a specific summer program.